Flarium Fact Sheet

Company	Flarium Ltd. is an international company, which has several businesses in the sphere of information technologies.
Mission	Our mission is to help people and businesses achieve better results by means of information technology. We offer software, ideas, solutions.
History	In the beginning of 2008, management team of Flarium Ltd. made a strategic decision to restructure the company with the aim of expanding activity markets and optimizing the existing spheres of our business. These aims could be achieved by merging with a well-known software development company Featherysoft Ltd. which was on the market for more than 7 years. Established in 2001, Featherysoft Ltd. was aimed at developing innovative multimedia applications. After this restructuring, Flarium Ltd. can develop high quality applications for both consumers and businesses even more effectively. Before merging, both Flarium Ltd. and FeatherySoft operated in IT industry but had different spheres of activities. Flarium Ltd. specialized in providing IT services like localization, e-store solutions and outsourcing. FeatherySoft developed high-quality multimedia applications and other software products. Combining their operations not only gave the possibility to expand operations and the range of activities, it also helped to create a worldwide network of representatives and resellers to provide customers better support and service.
Product lines	End-user applications based on Flash technology Calendar Software Libraries for Flash software developers
